OLD BUSINESS

The organization needs Insurance. Jason to get info on ins. form N.Y. Organization:(NY Conservation Club)

Dean will get information from Carpenters Insurance.

INVESTMENT

Jason gave some basic information on a couple of Mutual Funds. The Evergreen Investment and the American Mutual Fund

It was decided to table this until we could get more information.

A Committee was formed consisting of Clyde Breakell, Jason Marshall, and Joe Rinaldi.

Inside Raffle

An in-house raffle for the Henry Rifle that did not go at the dinner will be drawn at the Meeting May 22, 2005. There will be a total of 200 tickets at $10.00 each.

BY-LAWS

The club by-laws need to be finished. When these are completed we can then get our corporation papers finished.

Web Page

Chris met with David Coons; it is being updated and the organization has more access to add and subtract items.

Hatchery

The electric line has been put on the back burner for now. They want to up date the well field. $16,000 is needed to point up the wells. Chris and Jason will check with CAC to see if there is state funding. The wells are now operating at only 25%.

New Business

Gerry Zordan discussed the legislative study headed up by Jim Amann; set up to move Natural Resources to the Dept. of Agriculture. This would put the state in line with the Federal Gov. and that of 45 other states. This would also make it a more hunter friendly organization.

A motion was made to hire Kathy Frost at $50.00 per month to be the recording secretary until a member of the organization will do the job at no charge to the club.

A nominating committee of Jerry Ciarcia and Mike Fusco was set up and are to report back at the next meeting
